

IMPORTANT INFO

As you consider auditioning for ANNIE, here are some dates to think about

We hold rehearsals Saturday and Sunday afternoons beginning Jan. 9, 2010!
Rehearsals are scheduled between 1:00 and 5:00 on Saturdays.
Rehearsals are scheduled between 1:30 and 4:30 on Sundays.

Not every performer comes to every rehearsal.
You will be given a schedule of which rehearsals you need to attend based on what scenes are being rehearsed and what role you accept.
As you look at your calendars, think about being available most of the time.

If you are going to need to miss more than 5 rehearsals, you will have a hard time learning your role. Please be realistic about what you have time for.
